

Remembering loved ones who have passed

Whom would you like to remember on the Feast of All Saints? These can be people you knew personally or people from throughout history.

What reminds you of people who have passed away? Certain foods, songs, or places?

What are some ways you can show love and remembrance?

How would you like to be remembered someday?

